

AT A GLANCE

Why

To raise awareness of homelessness and to raise money for Family Promise of Jacksonville whose mission is to help homeless families become self sufficient.

Where

The grounds of CrossRoad Church, 10005 Gate Parkway

When

The event starts at 4 p.m. on November 11 and ends at 8 a.m. November 12

Who

The event is open to anyone! Families and youth groups are encouraged to attend together. Children under the age of 10 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Youth groups require one adult for every five youth, age 11 to 18, that attend.

How

Raise the "rent" and become a resident of Cardboard City by collecting pledges or making a donation to Family Promise. We are asking everyone to have a goal of raising $100 but all contributions will be accepted.

What to bring

Your pledge form and signed consent forms that will be sent to you once you register. Bring your donations, boxes or tents, items to decorate your box, sleeping bag, blankets, pillows, a flashlight, a deck of cards or other quiet games.

Do not bring

Valuables, electronics, pets, alcohol, or weapons.

Register for Cardboard City!

Yes, I will spend the night to help homeless families. Please sign me up to participate in Cardboard City... a Homeless Experience!

Yes, I would like to participate in Cardboard City... a Homeless Experience and will stay through the program portion of the event, but will not be able to spend the night, but will collect pledges or make a donation to help homeless families.

I would like to contribute to the event but unfortunately will not be able to attend. Enclosed is my check.

Boxes may be decorated however you choose as long as they are not offensive, demeaning or inappropriate. Prizes will be awarded for the most creative dwelling and the largest pledge collector.

Please provide your name and contact information and we mail or email to you the waiver, release and pledge forms.
